Clause 34A of the war injuries scheme provides for advances being made by employers to his employees receiving war injury. These advances are repayable out of the awards by the claims officer. Clause 3(a) of clause 34A provides for repayment in monthly instalments. But the awards are generally payable quarterly (vide clause 16) This defect is now rectified.

Suitable entries in Digest may be noted.

The reason for the amendment is explained in the Residency letter. Draft Notfn may be approved.

WAR INJURIES SCHEME.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to letter from this Residency No.F.87-41/W, dated the 12th June 1943, and to draw attention to the notification by the Government of India (Labour Department) No.L-826, dated the 2nd June 1943 (published in Part I, Section I of the Gazette of India dated the 5th June 1943) making a further amendment to the War Injuries Scheme, 1942. The Political Department state that this notification sets right an inadvertent error in the previous provisions and that except temporary allowances, all payments under the Scheme, viz. disability pensions, family pensions and children's allowances are usually to be made quarterly. Accordingly the adjustment of advances which is prescribed to be made at the time of making payment under the award can only be made quarterly and not monthly, as was laid down in the previous clause 34-A(3)(b).

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.
